

AMEDEO GRECO

Arbitrator

6240 SOUTH HIGHLANDS AVENUE

MADISON, WISCONSIN 53705

PHONE: 608-233-9796

FAX: 608-233-0124

Experience Has issued about 900 labor arbitration awards and has mediated about 250-300 labor disputes

Issues Absenteeism, alcohol and drug abuse, appraisals, arbitrability, bargaining unit work, bonus, bumping/recall, call in/call back, COLA, demotion, discipline, discrimination, dress, guaranteed work week, health insurance/hospitalization, hiring practices, holidays, incentive rates/standards, insurance, insubordination, job performance/evaluation, jurisdictional dispute, leave, management rights, mergers, merit pay, other fringe benefits, overtime, past practice, pension, posting/bidding, promotion, rate of pay, red circle rate, retirement, safety/health, severance pay, sexual harassment, shift hours, strike/lockout, subcontracting, successor, tenure, transfer, union business, upgrading, vacation pay, violence and threats, wages, work stoppages, etc.

Industries Aerospace, agriculture, airlines, bakery, beverage, broadcasting, canning, cement, chemicals, clerical, communications, coal, construction, dairy, electric equipment, federal sector, feed and fertilizer, food, foundry, furniture, gas and electric, glass/pottery, grain mill, VAC, health care, hotel/restaurant, iron, lumber, machine, manufacturing, meat packing, metal fabrication, nursing home, packaging, plastics, public sector (police, fire, education, etc.), pulp and paper, printing/publishing, railroads, retail stores, service, ship building and dry dock, steel, stone, transportation, trucking and storage, upholstery, utility, warehousing, etc.

Permanent Arbitrator America West Airlines/Association of Flight Attendants; Bridgestone-Firestone/USWA; Proctor & Gamble/PACE Local #47; Cook County Circuit Court/AFSCME Local 3368; Social Security Administration/AFGE; U.S. Customs Service/NTEU

Work History Previously served as a legal assistant to NLRB Chair Frank W. McCulloch in Washington, D.C., and as a trial attorney in the NLRB's Milwaukee, Wisconsin office. He then served as an arbitrator, mediator, and attorney with the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission in Madison, Wisconsin

Education Upsala College (AB); University of Wisconsin Law School (JD)

Professional Associations National Academy of Arbitrators/Industrial Relations Research Association

Professional Licenses Admitted to Wisconsin Bar.

Significant Publications Topic Author, Elkouri and Elkouri, How Arbitration Works, 6th Ed.

Compensation $900 Per Day

Per diem cancellation/postponement fee within 7 calendar days of a scheduled hearing; ½ per diem if cancelled within 14 calendar days of hearing; travel expenses & travel time charged from Evanston, Illinois, or Madison, Wisconsin, office – closest